

GLASNIK SRPSKOG ARHEOLOŠKOG DRUŠTVA/
JOURNAL OF THE SERBIAN ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY

GUIDELINES FOR THE AUTHORS

The manuscripts are submitted in Serbian language in Cyrillic version of script (with Serbian Cyrillic support) or in some of the widespread European languages: English, German, French, Italian, Russian. If the manuscript is submitted in Serbian, the author is required to also enclose a summary (résumé) in English. If the manuscript is in other language, it should contain a summary in Serbian. Illustration captions and key words should be in two languages – in Serbian and English if the main language of the manuscript is Serbian or English, or in Serbian and the main language of the manuscript if the main language is French, German, etc. Words, quotations and titles written in some of the foreign languages should be written in their original form.

The articles submitted to the editorial board of Glasnik Srpskog arheološkog društva should be prepared to contain, in the following order: the title, the name of the author with the affiliation, summary (abstract), key words, body text, bibliography, acknowledgments (not required), résumé (separate file), graphical appendices (separate files), list of illustrations and textual content of illustrative annexes (separate file) and contact details (separate file). All files should be named after the author's name, for example: smith-text.doc, smith-figure1.jpg, etc.

1. The title (TITLE – capital letters, bold) should be concise and clear, and describe the content of the article as accurately as possible. The words used in the title should be suitable for index listing and search. If there are no such words in the title, it is preferable to add a subtitle to the main title.

2. The author or the authors of the article should put their full name and surname, with affiliation and contact address. The author or the authors need to put the official name and seat of the institution they are employed in. When it comes to complex institutions, the entire name is listed (for example: University of Belgrade, Faculty of Philosophy, Department of Archaeology, Belgrade). The authors who are unemployed mark their place of residence. PhD students list the name of the Faculty and the University where they attend their PhD studies.

3. The summary (abstract) is a brief overview of the content of the article (100- 250 words). It is preferable that it contains the terms frequently used in article index listing and search. The summary should offer data about the purpose of the research, the method, the results of the research and the conclusion. It is submitted in the language in which the article is written. Along with the abstract should be submitted key words in the same language.

4. Key words should be the terms that best describe the content of the article for the purposes of index listing and search. The number of key words should not exceed 10.

5. The articles should not exceed the length of two author's sheets (32 pages / 1800 characters with spaces), in A4 paper size, including footnotes, references, summary and the illustrative part. The text should be edited in Word file (must be .doc), written in Times New Roman font (12 pts), with 1,5 cm spacing and 2,5 cm margins. PLEASE AVOID AUTOMATIC TEXT FORMATTING (such as auto headings and subheadings etc.) AND REDUCE FORMATTING TO MINIMUM.

Subheadings should be bold and separated with an empty row from the remaining text; second-level should be in italic.

6. Notes and remarks (footnotes) can be an integral part of the body text. They should contain important data or suitable explanations. They are not substitute for the cited bibliography. It is recommended to use the footnotes only if unavoidable.

7. Acknowledgements, if any, is placed at the end of the body text, before the bibliography. expressions of gratitude to institutions and individuals, as well as the title of the project within which the text was written, the funding sources for the researching etc.

8. The summary (résumé) should contain the same information as the summary, but in a broader scope (not more than 4000 characters). Below the title should be key words in the language of the résumé. Résumé should be sent as a separate file. Résumé is in English, if the manuscript is in Serbian, or in Serbian language, if the manuscript is in other language.

9. Illustrations should be given as separate files. Scanned appendices should be enclosed in 600 dpi resolution, and photographs in at least 300 dpi resolution in the following formats: TIFF or JPG. Tables and charts should be submitted in TIFF or JPG formats. It is recommended to prepare tables change in B5 paper format in order to fit into the magazine format. The titles and text content of illustrative appendices should be enclosed in two languages (main language of the manuscript and the language of the résumé). Illustrations may be submitted in colour, but it is recommended to the authors to keep in mind that only the online version is in colour, while Journal is sometimes printed in black-and-white, therefore charts, tables, etc. in colour should be adjusted for black-and-white printing.

10. When submitting the manuscript, the author should enclose their contact details in a separate file: the address of the institution they are employed in and the personal e-mail address. If there are two or more authors, only the contact details of the first one should be given. All files have to be named after the author (e.g. Smith_Body text; Smith_Table 1; Smith_Figure 1; Smith_Summary etc). _Table 1.

11. The manuscripts will be accepted only if they are written and structured in accordance with this Guidelines. Editorial board of Glasnik Srpskog arheološkog društva will forward each of the incoming works to anonymous reviewers for peer review. The editorial board decides on the categorization of the accepted manuscripts, in accordance with the criteria listed in the valid acts on editing scientific journals of Ministry of Education, Science and Technological Development of Republic of Serbia.

The papers should be submitted in digital form via e-mail sad.glasnik@gmail.com

12. References in the text have to be given by the Harvard system, as well the bibliography at the end of the body text. If the text is written in Cyrillic (Serbian, Russian), the bibliography is aligned in alphabetical order, and if in a foreign language (English, French, German, Italian) the bibliography should be sorted in alphabetical order.
